

the 1990s, the number of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia has increased in the United Kingdom (Meltzer 1998). The prevalence of schizophrenia is estimated to be 1% of the population (Meltzer 1998).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the lives of people with mental health problems. The Department of Health (1999) has set out a vision of a new mental health system, which will be based on the principles of recovery, partnership, and choice. The vision is to create a new mental health system, which will be based on the principles of recovery, partnership, and choice.
